SUBJECT: Possible Compromise of Classified Material

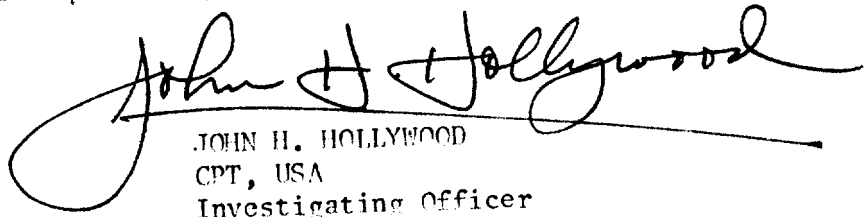

Director
CIA
ATTN: Director of Security
Washington, D.C. 20505

1. Following the move of the US Army Intelligence Center and School from Fort Holabird, Maryland to Fort Huachuca, Arizona, a box containing CONFIDENTIAL material, including a copy of "Where's What - Sources of Information For Federal Investigators," prepared by Harry [REDACTED] Office of Security, CIA, in 1966, could not be accounted for. A search both at Fort Huachuca and Fort Holabird has failed to locate the box in question. It now must be assumed that compromise of the material occurred or is at least a possibility.

STATINTL

2. In light of the above loss, will it be possible to downgrade or declassify the material in question? If not, what is the effect of the possible compromise of this material to your agency and on the security of the United States?

3. To facilitate our meeting a suspense to higher headquarters a reply to this letter is requested by 15 November 1971.
